

2014 Green Contracts Database

National Capital Region jurisdictions, drinking water and waste water entities, and school systems were surveyed and asked to identify all current contracts that, at least in part, include environmentally preferable products and services and whether the COG Rider Clause is included in the contract. The results are compiled into this Green Contracts Database to assist with local green purchasing efforts by (1) identifying contracts that COG Cooperative Purchasing Program Members can "ride" to acquire the same product or service and (2) connect with other members to share specifications and experience with the product/service (implementation and product quality).

Fairfax County*	Chris McGough	4400000109	Office Supplies: 60% of our spend is on recycled content products. All copier paper is 30% recycled content. Reman cartridges are included in contract. Contract provides a platform for a variety of green products at competitive prices. Contractor also provides toner recycling program and a box reuse program.	No	US Communities Contract. 4400000109. Very attentive contractor. Product Quality: recycled paper quality is excellent. Add'tl cost justified by environmental quality it produces (260,000lbs CO2e reduced/yr). Feedback on Innovera brand reman toners is strong. Fairfax County made the switch July 1st 2013 after extensive testing. 80K in savings projected in first year. Up to $200K in savings/yr possible. Strong feedback in toner recycling program (contractor takes all types at no cost). Fairfax County is excited to implement a box reuse program in 2014 to mitigate waste from 11,000 orders annually.
Fairfax County*	Chris McGough	4400002592	Green Cleaning (concentrated chemicals): Contractor provides Green Seal certified chemicals and implementation plan. Also provides training program to ensure chemicals are applied correctly to achieve strong results.	Yes
Fairfax County*	Chris McGough	4400000810, 4400000781, 4400000726	Green Cleaning (custodial services): Requirements include 100% pcw content paper products, green chemicals meeting Green Seal or equal standards and a list of prohibited chemicals	Yes	Various contracts. Good examples are contracts: 4400000810 (4/30/14), 4400000781 (3/31/14), 4400000726 (12/31/13, 1 one-year renewal)

Fairfax County*	Chris McGough	VA-100917-CRE	E-waste recycling contract for county generated equipment. Contractor provides on-demand pickups, inventorying, data cleansing, sends detailed certificates and reimburses county for a variety of items. TVs and cords/wires incur a cost.	No	Fairfax rides the VA state contract: VA-100917-CRE. Implementation was okay. Online pickup requests are nice but billing system is not flexible.  *In 2011-2012, we recycled 140,475 lbs of electronics. With a long list of accepted items, about 44% of what was recycled would not have been accepted in prior program.
Fairfax County*	Chris McGough	4400001543	Energy efficient vending services: Contractor required to supply "certified energy efficient" machines. Contract is for vending services, not the outright purchase of machines.	Yes
Fairfax County*	Chris McGough	4400001195	PC Power Management Software: Fairfax County purchased 1E's Nightwatchman Software to remotely shut down our 14,000 computers each night at 6:00pm. Software has significantly reduced energy consumption.	No	Project has realized over $300,000 in savings in first few years. We ride US Communities Contract with Insight Public Sector who supplied the software. Details searchable under Fairfax County contract# 4400001195 "Technology Products Equipment Services." Stats on improvement: http://www.1e.com/blogs/2011/05/06/1e-customers-fairfax-county-and-west-virginia-office-of-technology-win-in-the-infoworld-green-15-awards/
Fairfax County*	Chris McGough	4400002736, 4400002653	Hybrid fleet vehicles/electric fleet vehicles: Fairfax rides a few different contracts to purchase hybrid vehicles. Chevy Volts have been purchased on a one-time contract which has since expired.	No	4400002736 for a variety of fleet vehicles both hybrid and all electric. See 4400002653 for a contract specifically for hybrid ford fusions. Fairfax County uses H-GAC as source for rideable contracts to make other purchases like hybrid box trucks and hybrid heavy machinery.
Fairfax County*	Chris McGough	4400001552, 4400002917	Tire recycling (sale of surplus tires) and tire retreading. Contracts allow Fairfax County to extend the life of our tires (reuse or sell) prior to disposal.	Yes	Tire Retreading: contract# 4400001552  Sale of Surplus Tires: contract# 4400002917. Contractor is small and performance impacted by quantity of surplus.
Fairfax County*	Chris McGough	4400003732	Multifunction Printers/Copiers: Contractor provides energy star devices. Scanning capabilities and other intelligent printing functions have helped FFX reduce paper consumption by 20%. A no-cost toner recycling program. Machines able to use 30-100% recycled content paper. Tracking software to help target paper reduction strategies.	Yes	Contract# 4400003732. Awarded Feb 11 2013. Fairfax was the lead jurisdiction in the US Communities contract solicitation. Implementation of prior US Communities Contract with same vendor went well. Feedback strong. Machines helped Fairfax reduce paper consumption by 20%. Expectations high for new contract.
Fairfax County*	Chris McGough	4400002427	Residential Energy Education Outreach: Consulting services to develop outreach and education campaign.	Yes	Contract# 4400002427. GolinHarris is contractor. Outreach strategy is mostly PR based with some community based social marketing aspects.
Fairfax County*	Chris McGough	440003402	Office Furniture: Contract creates a catalog of various items - most are conventional but some have green attributes like recycled content or are LEED compatible	Yes	Fairfax County awarded the national contract (US Communities) to Haworth, Herman Miller and Knoll in Jan 2013. 440003402. Green specs, such as end of life mgmt and compatibility with LEED requirements, were requested in solicitation. Result is large product offerings - both green and conventional. It is unclear how often Fairfax purchases env preferable office furniture as there are no mandates.

Fairfax County*	Chris McGough	4400002469, 4400003856, 4400000078	Facilities Management Supplies (light bulbs, building materials, paint etc): Recycled content products, bio-based chemicals, energy efficient items, etc are contained within these national contracts. *The contracts provide a huge catalog of products some of which have green attributes.	No	Fairfax County rides the US Communities contract with HD Supplies and Home Depot (4400002469/2481) as well as the US Communities contract for electrical supplies (4400003856). We also ride a NJPA contract (4400000078) with Grainger. Green items are available on both contracts although Fairfax County makes only infrequent purchases. Total green purchase unclear.
Fairfax County*	Chris McGough	4400000126	Synthetic Chemical Monitoring Program (water quality monitoring): Pesticides, industrial chemicals and other synthetic pollutants are be monitored in an ecologically sensitive watershed. Annual rate of $50K. Services provided by Virginia Tech.	No	Contract# 4400000126. Contract was not competitively bid but can serve as a baseline for others interested in pursuing a similar agreement.
Fairfax County*	Chris McGough	4400000339	Computers; EPEAT compliant. Contract also includes a takeback clause.	Yes	Contract# 4400000339. Product quality excellent. Contract in place since 2006. EPEAT not directly specified in the contract but products (Dell OptiPlex desktops and Latitude laptops) are mostly EPEAT gold with some variation.
Fairfax County*	Chris McGough	4400001226, 4400001784, 4400001446	Responsible Disposal of Surplus equipment. Fairfax County has established a portfolio of disposal options through contracted services that provide transparency, controls, maximize financial returns and minimize environmental impact.  *Program's website: http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/dpsm/surplus.htm	Yes	1) Direct online auctions. Contract# 4400001226. Selling to such a wide audience helps reduce waste (able to find buyers for niche items) and maximize revenue (strong competition yields market value). Contract competitively bid. 2) Consignment auctions. Contract# 4400001784. Contractor picks up, stores and sells our surplus. If item not sold, it will be recycled (if possible) before thrown in the trash. Specific solution for vehicles and one for Police Property and Evidence. 3) E-waste recycling. Yes	Contract# 4400001822. The contract with IL Creations of Maryland Inc surpasses the environmental performance of our other food service contractors. They voluntarily provide unbleached napkins, biodegradable food containers, recycle oil - and market their environmental attributes to customers.
Fairfax County*	Chris McGough	4400000901/440000902, 4400004131, 4400000881, 4400003377	Carpeting: Two contracts spec carpets that are certified as Green Label Plus. Green Label Plus is an independent testing program that identifies carpet with very low emissions of volatile organic compounds to help improve indoor air quality. This certification helps contribute to a building's LEED rating.  US Communities contract offers free carpet recycling as well as env preferable carpets.	Yes	Currently there are three contracts related to furnishing and installing carpeting. Contract #4400000901/440000902 focuses on residential buildings. Contract 4400004131 - Floor Coverings (which rides PWC contract 11167BA4 - includes carpet as well as flooring recycling). Contract 4400003377 with Empire Today (US Communities) offers both green carpets and recycling services (at no cost).

Fairfax County*	Chris McGough	4400002215	Purchase of Native Plants (locally propagated, harvested from local seed): Contract with local non-profit. Contract enables a variety of departments to replant native/local species after a project or upon new construction. Competitive solicitation resulted in contracts with 4 nurseries to provide additional sources for native plants.	No	Contract 4400002215 (sole source) with Earth Sanga for Native Plants Harvested From Local Seed. Non profit has its greenhouse on FCPA property. The partnership results in good prices and excellent product.  Contract 4400003715 for Landscape Plants and Related Services also includes line items for native plant materials.
